Once You Have Applied

- Your financial aid information (documents needed, offer status, etc.) can be viewed through your myLakeland. If you have other financial aid questions, contact Lakeland's Financial Aid Office or visit Lakeland's Student Service Center in A-1003. For 24/7 assistance with general financial aid questions, visit Lakeland's Financial Aid webpage for assistance from Crash, Lakeland's artificially intelligent chatbot.
- You can verify the status of your FAFSA, view a copy of your FAFSA Submission Summary or make corrections to your application on the FAFSA website. You may also call the Federal Student Aid Information Center \(FSAIC\) at 800.433.3243. They are open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday from 11 a.m. - 5 p.m., Eastern Time. TDD users may call 800.730.8913 for assistance.
- Remember to check your Lakeland email regularly for important information about your financial aid.

Other Important Information

- If you receive federal financial aid (Pell Grant, Direct Loans, SEOG, Federal Work-Study), class attendance is required. Your instructors will report your attendance to Lakeland's Financial Aid Office.
- You will need to make Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue receiving any federal financial assistance. A copy of the policy is available at Lakeland's Student Service Center or online.

Looking for Additional Scholarships?

- You may apply directly to any outside scholarship provided you meet the eligibility criteria.
- Outside scholarship announcements are posted regularly on the bulletin board outside Lakeland's Student Service Center and online. Some scholarships provide a website to apply, or you may check with Lakeland's Student Service Center for an application.
- Additional scholarship opportunities are posted in the "Announcements" section of the Financial Aid webpage and through the myLakeland portal.
- You may also use free scholarship searches to find other scholarship possibilities. Beware that there are scholarship search websites that charge for their services. The Federal Trade Commission provides information about these and other financial aid scams.
- It is strongly recommended that you use scholarship search websites that do not charge a fee such as:
 - BigFuture Grants and Scholarships
 - CareerOneStop
 - Chegg Scholarships
 - Fastweb
 - Peterson's
 - SallieMae College Planning Scholarships
 - Scholarship Hunter
